IMPROVING CITY STREETS.

Two sets of city street forces were put to work today grading Ursuline avenue and Caldwell street. The force on Ursuline avenue is grading and draining the street from Allen Academy east, and the force on Caldwell street is grading and draining from Alderman John Daly's residence east. The Bryan & College Interurban authorities have agreed to do all they could to help the city out these streets in good condition and have agreed to adjust the grades of the interurban track to the proper height for good drainage. They have also contributed the use of some of their teams and graders.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT DOUGHTY AT A. & M.

Conferred With Professors Relative to Curricula for Rural Schools.

State Superintendent of Education Doughty is here today from Austin in conference with Prof. M. L. Hayes, professor of agricultural education at the A. & M. College. The State Department, the University of Texas and the A. & M. College are engaged in the preparation of a bulletin on agricultural curricula for public schools which soon will be published. Prof. Hayes is representing the college in that matter.

The teaching of cotton, chaseling will be required by State law beginning with the next school year this fall and Superintendent Doughty is planning with J. B. Bagley, professor of textile engineering at the college, a course especially for school teachers. More definite announcements along that line will be made soon.

Mr. Doughty will return to Austin today.

SUBIA'S NECK WAS SAVED BY COLQUITT

Death Sentence of Reeves County Man Commuted to Life Imprisonment.

Austin, Tex., May 28.—The Governor yesterday commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence returned against Fernando Subia in Reeves County for the killing of T. Y. Moorehead, city marshal of Pecos City.

On a former date the Governor refused to interfere in this case. Subia was sentenced to be hanged next Friday and his case had been finally affirmed in the Court of Criminal Appeals.

A HANDSOME PRESENT FOR FRIEND

Nothing More Suitable for Friends Away Than 1914 Long Horn.

A few copies of the 1914 Long Horn have been placed on sale in Bryan at Haswell's book store and will be sold at $2.75 per copy.

This annual surpasses all previous efforts in this publication and would make a suitable gift for friends at a distance. Only a few copies will be offered for sale in Bryan and parties desiring a copy will be shown the book at Haswell's.

THERE WAS NO LUDLOW MASSACRE

Judge Advocate Testified Nobody Was Killed or Burned Except One Small Child.

[By Associated Press] New York, May 28.—Edward J. Boughton, judge advocate of the military district in Colorado, testified today before the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations that there was no such thing as a "Ludlow massacre." Nobody was killed or burned except a small child who was shot, it appears, not by troops of the State, but as a result of his own carelessness.

NO WOMEN ON BOARD OF ELDERS

[By Associated Press] Chicago, Ill., May 28.—The Northern Presbyterian Church in general assembly refuses to permit women to serve as ruling elders.
